Liability Release & Waiver

In signing this agreement I understand that those participating in IPNA events will be exposed to risks of bodily injury due to circumstances inherent in this event, including the negligent acts or omissions of others. I also understand and am aware that there are a variety of specific risks and dangers inherent in a voluntary activity such as this including, without limitation, use of knives for woodworking, use of sharp tools, flint knapping glass and other sharp objects, falls, collisions with other participants, or stationary objects. I will be participating out of doors and exposed to adverse weather conditions, tent camping, or survival camping, air or waterborne microorganisms, exposure to cold rain, or falling objects. I am aware that anyone who is inadequately prepared, trained or in inadequate physical condition could be injured. I further understand that there is a risk of becoming lost or separated from the rest of the group and I may incur personal liability for the costs of rescue of me or members of my family. I also understand that I may be injured while on the IPNA land or while traveling via motor vehicle or on foot due to my own inattention or because of the negligence of others. Despite these risks and in exchange for being permitted to participate in this event, I voluntarily agree to assume all of these and other risks inherent in the event.

I understand further that any medical or other services provided to me is not an admission of liability to provide or to continue to provide any such services and is not a waiver by any of said parties' rights under this agreement. I understand that the Institute for Permaculture and Nature Awareness assumes no responsibility or liability with respect to my participation in this event. I agree, however, to abide by any decision of any official of IPNA relative to my ability to safely participate in this event.

Having read this waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of the Institute for Permaculture and Nature Awareness' acceptance of my application for participation in this event, I do hereby agree to release, hold harmless, and discharge the Institute for Permaculture and Nature Awareness, all instructors, representatives and volunteers, any involved municipalities or other organization and the boards, trustees, officers, employees, or volunteers of any of them, from any and all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation and/or my own acts of negligence in this event whether or not liability may arise out of negligence, recklessness or carelessness on the part of the persons or entities named in this waiver.

HAVING READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS AGREEMENT, I VOLUNTARILY AND KNOWINGLY SIGN IT
